

Political Spending by Industry Attendees of the Third Global Plastics Treaty
Negotiation Session in Nairobi, Kenya, Nov. 2023

Data Analysis by the Center for Biological Diversity

INC-3 Attendees	2022 Political Contributions	2022 Lobbying
American Chemistry Council	$698,194	$19,820,000
American Fuel and PetroChem Manufacturers	$943,750	$3,815,000
Boeing	$4,020,793	$13,170,000
Braskem	$1,000	$80,000
Chevron	$7,812,086	$7,106,000
Coca-Cola	$910,461	$4,550,000
Dow Inc.	$398,290	$6,920,000
EPS Industry Alliance (Expanded Polystyrene Foam)		$240,000
ExxonMobil	$1,547,087	$7,740,000
Milliken Chemical	$259,996	$300,000
PepsiCo	$718,019	$4,090,000
The Vinyl Institute		$540,000
	$17,309,676	$68,371,000
Total of contributions + lobbying:	$85,680,676

Source: The Center for Biological Diversity analyzed data provided by OpenSecrets, a nonprofit organization based in Washington, D.C. that tracks data on campaign finance and lobbying. Data last accessed 11/17/23 at www.opensecrets.org.