Pecos Wilderness ride

Since our days might be numbered to ride the Pecos Wilderness we're going to ride there Saturday 11/3. Meet at the Davis Willow campground at 10:00. We'll ride till late afternoon. Its about a 60-70 round trip ride. If you want to go and don't know how to get there let me know and I'll give you directions. Should be a great day for mountain riding. Bring your lunch and some warm clothes, this is an 11,000 ft ride!

Re: Pecos Wilderness ride

Back in 1994 I spent 4 weeks backpacking in the Pecos wilderness area. Really nice place. Didn't know U could ride there (unless U were on a horse). Why are they shutting it down to atv riding?

Same reason they're closing down riding areas across the country. Tree hugger's have a lot of pull
